AN INTRODUCTION TO
HEALTH SCIENCES
LIBRARIANSHIP
LOCAL MEMBERSHIP ORGANIZATIONS

Metro Detroit Medical Library Group

Members include information professionals and experts, paraprofessionals, and students who work or are interested in biomedical or health sciences libraries or medical informatics. The current membership represents hospital, academic, and special libraries, or resources centers, from Southeastern Michigan and beyond.

Student membership is free and grants dual membership to the Michigan Health Sciences Libraries Association.

Michigan Health Sciences
Libraries Association

MHSLA's purpose is to promote excellence in health sciences librarianship by providing its membership with opportunities for professional growth, fostering communication between members and their regions, facilitating resource sharing, increasing awareness of new technologies, providing high-quality continuing education, and conducting research in health sciences information services.

Medical Library Association Midwest Chapter

The Midwest Chapter of MLA brings together librarians who work or are interested in health sciences disciplines or health sciences librarianship.

The Chapter welcomes all who are interested in health sciences libraries and librarianship and reside in Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kentucky, Michigan, Minnesota, North Dakota, Ohio, or Wisconsin.

Student memberships are free!

Michigan Academic Library Association

MiALA's mission is to provide opportunities for professional development, growth, leadership, and committee service for all academic librarians, library staff, and library students working in any college, community college, or university library in Michigan.

Student memberships are $20 annually.
